CALL FOR ARTISTS: Here is the latest calls!

RCAS CALL FOR ENTRIES,

The owner of building 2600 has asked us to hang a new show as soon as possible. We currently have 8 paintings in the exhibit and will be able to replace them with a like amount so if you are interested in having your paintings considered, please send me JPG's along with the following information: Title, Medium, Size, Price. Small paintings are desired and the theme for the upcoming show is "SUMMER".

I need your information no later than next Wednesday, July 20th to submit to the owner for their selections. We will hang the selected pieces the following week. RCAS will require a 20% commission for any paintings sold but the owner will not require a fee. Send your information to me (michaelarcher7@gmail.com).

Thanks

My name is Kim Kort, President of the Texas Jewish Arts Association, TJAA, www.texasjewisharts.org, and a current member of RCAS.

The Texas Jewish Arts Association is so excited to collaborate with the Dallas Arboretum and the Interfaith Council at Thanksgiving Square for a holiday exhibition called "The Artistry of Faith & Culture", November 9- December 31, 2022.

It is the first time for the Arboretum to entertain other faiths inside the DeGolyer home on the grounds of the Arboretum TJAA is so very excited to bring this to the Jewish community. People don't have to be members of TJAA but they will get a discount in the application if they join the Texas Jewish Arts Association.

TJAA has already begun marketing and launching the Call for Art from all of TEXas. It is not just for artists. This is an opportunity for the jewish community to show off and display items from Hanukkah and Shabbat. It includes heirloom items, items passed down from generations, art that is created by artists from 2D to 3D artwork, sculptures, dreidel collections, candlestick holders, tapestry, life size menorahs, and this includes musicians to apply with their recorded music. The dining and morning room inside the DeGolyer home, on the grounds of the Arboretum, will be dedicated to Hanukkah and Shabbat. The other rooms will display Kwanzaa and Christmas items.

TJAA is sending out marketing materials to all synagogues, Jewish agencies and organizations, school, media stations, all over the state of Texas. Anything the Federation can do to help us market this event would be greatly appreciated.

Thank you for your continued support of the Texas Jewish Arts Association. We greatly appreciate it.

From Wendy Koehrsen, current RCAS member, from the Pastel Society of the Southwest

Less than one month to apply - deadline August 1, 2022. We invite you to participate in our 41st National Juried Exhibition and be a part of our quest for the highest artistic excellence in the soft pastel medium. The exhibition will be held at the Grapevine Convention & Visitors Bureau located in Grapevine, Texas during the month of October.

Open to all artists working in the soft pastel medium with 80% of the artwork consisting of soft pastel. No oil pastels. This year's show will be juried and judged by nationally recognized artist Sally Strand, PSA-MP, HFH and IAPS/EP. She will conduct a free member meeting demo and a multiple day (registration fee required) pastel workshop.

Registration does not guarantee placement into this juried show. There will be $4,000 in cash and merchandise awarded. Please refer to eligibility and registration requirements in our prospectus on OnlineJuriedShows at <https://www.onlinejuriedshows.com/Default.aspx?OJSID=52414>
